Release of Liability of the Fernie Chamber of Commerce And their Affiliates, Employees, Associates and Agents

I, _____, understand and agree that as a participant in the Extreme Griz Challenge that I am about to undertake an activity that is potentially dangerous and I hereby release the Fernie Chamber of Commerce And its affiliates, employees, associates, and agents from all liability whatsoever, whether as a result of their negligence, misfeasance, and malfeasance or for what ever reason. I understand that if I believe that I am being asked to take any risk that I do not feel comfortable with I will refuse to take that risk and that if I do not refuse that risk I accept that I have agreed to take the risk and will not hold the Fernie Chamber of Commerce or any of its affiliates, employees, associates, or agents responsible or liable. I furthermore agree that even if I am not asked to take a risk, if I undertake anything whatsoever during the Extreme Griz Challenge I am doing so with the understanding that I do so at my own risk and I agree that I take that risk and all other risks of my own free will and I will not hold the Fernie Chamber of Commerce or any of its affiliates, employees associates or agents responsible or liable in any way. I also understand and agree that I have been advised to obtain personal insurance, I agree that I am self-insured, and that I have either obtained insurance for myself or that I will hold only myself responsible for any damage, injury, or death that may be the result of either my own actions or those of the Fernie Chamber of Commerce, or any of its affiliates, employees, associates, or agents.

I also agree that I sign this release on behalf of and as binding my estate, successors, assigns or any party whatsoever who may have or would have under law or legislation or any jurisdiction the right to proceed in a court of law or other competent authority of any type against the Fernie Chamber of Commerce, or any of its affiliates, employees, associates, or agents.
